Household Hints HER PAGE Society, Fashions

By E. C. DRUM-HUNT.

The President and Mrs. Wilson turned to Washington and joined his attended the performance at B. F. family at their home in Twentieth street. Accompanying them were Miss Bertha Bolling and Mr. and Mrs. MRS. JAMES A. REED were Miss

The Minister of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes and Mme. Grouitch were the honor guests at a dinner which Miss Louise Lacey gave last evening at the Chevy Chase Club before the James Parker, Representative and and Mrs. Clifton N. McArthur, Representative Norman J. Gould, Mrs. Mr. as Morgan Hill, Mrs. J. C. O'Laughillo, John B. Henderson, Col. and Mrs. Charles Fralley, iMss Georgia Lynch. Mrs. Jonathan Bourne and her sis-ter, Mrs. Ramsay, Mrs. Claude Mayo. O. L. Millmore, Clarence Hughes, Raymond Richardson, Edwin Flather, Capt. Granger, Count Goran Rosen, Capt. Sylvan, Capt. Parkritige, Capt. Worthington, Mrs. John Gregory Hope and Mr. Wickham-George.

of State, who is with Mrs. Phillips resides at and their children at North Beverly, ton, N. J.

Minister to Norway, landed in New York yesterday from the Norwegian steamer Stavangerfjord from Berger P. Grant Smith, American Minister to Denmark, reached New York yes-terday on the Scandinavian-American liner United States. Dr. Alfonso, Forcade, who was tem- HICKEY-TIERNEY porarily attached to the Cuban lega-tion as secretary, accompanied by Mme. Forcade, left Washington yes-nounces the engagement of terday morning for his new post at Mexico City, where he will be first secretary of the Cuban legation. MRS. T. H. NEWBERRY

Dr. Cary Langhorne returned to Washington yesterday from Rectortown, Va., where he, with Mrs. Langhorne, went about a week ago. Mrs.
Langhorne will remain there all summer and Dr. Langhorne will join her

The few moths. They will sail on the

Miss Laura Trembley and Miss Ruth - While in Washington they will be Lawson will leave Washington tomorguests of Mrs. Dorothy Jehnston, of row for their homes in Cheboygan. Falkstone Courts. Mrs. Grady and Mich., where they will remain about Mrs. Johnston are friends of long a month. They are doing war work standing. Mrs. Grady has visited

How to Look and Feel Bright in Hot Weather

When depressed by the heat and you want to freshen up for the afternoon or evening, just bathe the face in a lotion made by dissolving an

than an hour's rest,
a wrinkle-remove the sarolite lotion is rekably successful. Its action is almost magiThe deepest furrows, as well as the finest cal. In detect introduce as we as the mea-lines whether due to age, illness, weather or worry—are immediately affected. Enlarged pores are reduced, flabby skin is "drawn in," facial contour is improved wonderfully. The simple inpour is improved wonderfully. The simple in-ients of course can be had at any drug store, you need not healtate to try the lotion, as it not harm any aldn in the lesst.—Adv.

The Moss-Lessner Co., Inc. 917 F St. [Near 9th]

Here's Your Chance

-to secure an extra

Wash Skirt at a worthwhile saving!

Smart Tub Skirts, $2.95 & $3.45 Today

Values up to $5. These bargains won't tarry. Come early so you can get just the style and size you want.

ENTERTAINED YESTERDAY.

Mrs. James A. Reed and her guest, Mrs. W. J. McDonald, of Chicago and Pasadens, entertained informally at luncheon followed by bridge yester-day at the Purple Iris Tea House. at the Chevy Chase Club before the weekly dance. The other guests were senator and Mrs. Miles Poindexter. Senator Gilbert Hitchcock, Senator William M. Calder. Representative and they will leave for Chicago to-

Mr. and Mrs. Fleming Newboldshave gone to Atlantic City.

Reid A. Knox, son of Senator and Mrs. P. C. Knox, is in Atlantic City.

Col. Charles Lacey Hall, Engineer Corps. U. S. A., who has been sta-tioned in Washington temporarity, has been ordered to Portland, Maine. He was stationed here several years ago for a long time and was an aid at the White House. His sister, at the White House. His sister, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, formerly Miss aviation school, who came to Washington from Mexico with the Ambassador of that county several days ago and was a guest at the Embassy, has left town to motor to New York, but will return to the Embassy shortly.

William Phillips, Assistant Secretary of State, who is with Mrs. Phillips and their children at North Beverly, tank the White House. His sister, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, formerly Miss, Ruth Hall, was a close friend of the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the in White House. His sister, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, formerly Miss, Ruth Hall, was a close friend of the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the marking and was a frequent guest at the in White House. His sister, Mrs. Earl Baldwin, formerly Miss a close friend of the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the many the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the daughters of President Wilson and was a frequent guest at the daughters of President Wilson and was a freq

Mr. and Mrs. Cotter T. Bride have sold their home in Chevy Chase and have leased the residence of Mrs. Alfred Hopkins in Edgemoor.

Mrs. Walter Tuckerman, who had planned to go to Southampton, L. I., in June, has postponed her departure indefinitely. She is now at her home

Mrs. Edmund Plowden Hickey an-nounces the engagement of her daugh-ter. Miss Ethel Hickey, to Edward Tierney, of West Virginia, son of Mrs. and Mr. J. J. Tierney, of Philadelphia and West Virginia. The wedding will take place in the au tumn.

IN WATCH HILL.

Mrs. Truman H. Newberry, wife of Senator Newberry, left Washington yesterday morning for their summer home at Watch Hill, R. L. for an indefinite stay. She will divide her summer between Watch Hill and Wisshington.

Until recently Mr. Tierney was a first lieutenant in the army, serving with the American Expeditionary Force in France. He and his bridge expect to make their home in West Virginia. Miss Hickey is both charming and talented and is a cultivated musician.

Olympic.

a month. They are doing war work in Washington and have resided here for more than a year.

Miss Margaret Harding will go to the North Shore for a series of visits later in the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Wheeler and their children have gone to Magnolia, Mass., to remain until fall:

Col. and Mrs. George Williams have leased the home of Comdr. and Mrs. Hugh McLean Walker in Edgemoor, Md. Col. Williams recently returned from France and has been assigned to the office of the Inspector General

Mrs. Grady has visited in Washington many times, and on one occasion she and her father. State Senator R. F. Del Valle, of California, who was called here on a diplomatic mission concerning Mexico, were guests of Senator James Duval Phelan. Her marriage to Mr. Grady took place while she was a student at Columbia University and he a member of the faculty. Later he came to Washington Mr. and Mrs. Grady will go to California for a visit.

The marriage of Miss Visited in Washington many times, and on one occasion she and her father. State Senator R. F. Del Valle, of California, who was called here on a diplomatic mission concerning Mexico, were guests of Senator James Duval Phelan. Her marriage to Mr. Grady took place while she was a student at Columbia University and he a member of the faculty. Later he came to Washington Mr. are triends of the work of California, who was called here on a diplomatic mission concerning Mexico, were guests of Senator James Duval Phelan. Her marriage to Mr. Grady took place while she was a student at Columbia University and he a member of the faculty. Later he came to Washington Mr. are triends of the work of the came to Washington Took place while she was a student at Columbia University and he a member of the faculty. Later he came to Washington to serve with the War Trade Board. From Washington to serve with the War Trade Board. From Washington to serve with the War Trade Board. From Washington to serve with the War Trade Board. From Washington to serve with the War Trade Board. From Wash to the office of the Inspector General of the Army here in Washington.

Mrs. Carl Mapes has gone to her home in Grand Rapids, Mich., to spend the summer. Mr. Mapes expects to join her there later.

Capt. Charles Hume, who has been abroad for several months, has readred. the office of the Inspector General Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A.

or Uncle Sam with her two brothers, and has been in Washington for the past year. Lieut. Moffatt was a student at the Louisville Seminary, and enlisted as a chaplain in the army in April. 1918. He is now stationed at the General Hospital in Carlisle. Pa., where he will take his bride until he is relieved from service.

beside the face in a lotion made by dissolving an ounce of pure powdered saxelite in a half pint of witch hase. You will find this more refreshing than an hour's rest.

As a wrinkle-remover the saxelite lotion is read.

As a wrinkle-remover the saxelite lotion is read. Mrs. A. Garrison McClintock has Miss Adelaide Heath went to Stamford, Conn., yesterday to visit Mrs. Thomas W. Bowers for several weeks.

Preparations are in full swing for Preparations are in full swing for the garden party to be given for the Robert E. Lee memorial fund by the board of control of the Robert E. Lee Chapter, No. 644, U. D. C., at Terrace Inn, Fourteenth street and Massachusetts avenue northwest, this company numbered 525.

Dancing will be one of the main features of the Creaing. The ball uled.

D. L. (now known as D. S.) Comments and articles of various kinds will be for sale and amusements will be provided for all.

Should rain interfere, the party will be held the following evening.

Known as Service) Battalion is scheding in print, 49c; Eigin tub, 48c; process, 28a39c; eggs, strictly fresh, 38a39c; blackberries, 10a20c per quart; cantaloupes, per crate, $3.50a4.75; apples, per bbl., $4.00a8.50.

Naturalization.

Dear Miss Lee: Will you please give me some information concerning the statement that an enlisted person is entitled to cratain privileges.

The Order of Lafayette will observe the 162d birthday of the distinguished French and American general by a reception at the Washington Club. 1701 K street, on September 5, from 1220 o'clock. There will be refreshments and dancing. Admission by card. On account of the close alliance between the United States and France, this year's celebration will be observed in many parts of the country. The committee on invitations and music includes Daniel Smith Gordon. Thomas Campbell Washington and Dr. Joseph G. B. Bulloch: program and refreshments. Miss Bertha F. Wolfe and Mrs. George Chadsey. Mrs. Nayle Colquittis general chairman of the entertainment to which many persons in sympathy with the French-American alliance will be invited.

Dear Miss Lee: I have been married ten information conorming the statement that an enlighed person is entitled to creatin privileges and papers of the comfort. I have always done everything I knew how for the comfort and happiness of my husband and children. I have always done everything I knew how for the comfort and happiness of my husband and ehildren. The and was all papers of the paper of the special control of the close and France, this year? celebration will be observed in many parts of the country. The committee on invitations and music includes Daniel Smith Gordon. Thomas Campbell Washington and Dr. Joseph G. B. Bulloch: program and refreshments, band fails to put his appreciation into words. The fact that he provides well for you and is kind to you are genuine expressions of appreciation. It is always a good idea in cases of dissatisfaction like this, to look at the other side of the provision in Washington club.

Her Bloke. Will you please time some conformation conorming the statement that an enligted person is entitled to train privileges than children. The always done of the comfort. The conformation conorming the statement that an enlighed person is entitled to refreshments, and happiness of my husband and children. I have always done of provide and provide well into many w

WHY THOSE GRAY HAIRS?

Heller's Hair-Store

BOD SEVENTH ST.

Virginia Lee's Personal Answers To Herald Readers' Questions

The lack of a sewing machine does not mean that it is impossible for women to make the daintiest of summer frocks.

I have seen some of the loveliest dresses that were merely cut out, basted and sent to the hemstitcher's. At fifteen cents a yard, furnishing the thread themselves, the hemstitchers return your dress to you with the sleeves, hem, tucks, cuffs and other edges satisfactorily bound together with this most attractive stitch.

Virginia Lee.

tions it is customary to express thanks for any favors or any extra

Food Prices a Year Ago.

local markets were as follows: Pota-toes, No. 1, $3.50a5.50 per standard bbl;

cabbage, new, $3.50a4.00 per bbl.; toma-toes, Florida, $2.00a3.00 per crate; Mississippi, $1.25a1.60 per crate; home grown, 4.00a6.00 per crate; livestock, sheep, per pound, 6a8c; lambs, spring, 18c; calves, per pound, 18c; butter, El-gin print, 49c; Elgin tub, 48c; process,

Dear Miss Lee: Will you please give me some information concerning the statement that an enlisted person is entitled to certain privileges toward becoming naturalized? The person referred to enlisted in the naval reserve and has taken out first papers only.—M. S.

I telephoned the Bureau of Naturalization. Department of Lebon.

2, $1.50a3.00 per standard bbl.;

last of June, 1918, prices in the

At one of these shops they have their own unique patterns for machine or hand embroidery at moderate prices.

If it is a plaited skirt you are in need of, it will cost you from 35 to 45 cents per yard according to the length unless you are very short or very tall. Plaited trimmings from five to ten inches can be done for 5 to 10 cents a yard. Even your buttons can be made and for that matter the buttonholes too.

And so you girls without a sewing machine and you who simply can't run one write for the address of a shop where you can have all these things done.

Troop Arrivals.

I received inquiries concerning the following troop arrivals, and the War Department informed me, July 15,

The Twelfth Field Artillery of the Second Division is scheduled, as is the whole of that division, to sail. The unit of the 135th Army Service Corps must be furnished to obtain

They had no record of a laundry company numbered 525.
Company B, 338th Labor (now known as Service) Battalion is sched-

in cases of dissatisfaction like this, to look at the other side of the question. Do you show your appreciation for your husband's generosity in providing and for his kindness in other ways or do you just take them for granted as he takes your efforts? Instead of considering it a sacrifice to work for your husband and children, you should your consider it a great privilege. The satisfaction of ministering to the happiness and comfort of those we love should be its own reward.

Customary Courtesy.

Dear Miss Lee: Should a husband refuse to let his wife stay at her mother's? My husband becomes angy when I go out to We my friends and is very isolous. What can I do!—Antique. Of course your husband should not object to your spending the day or afternoon with your mother provided you do not shirk your own household by doing so. No husband or wife should expect the other one to give up his or her old friends. At the same time be sure that you give him no cause for jealousy and if you know you are in the right just a little talk should straighten out such a matter.

Yes. In business as in social rela- straighten out such a matter,

ENGRAVING AND PRINTING NEWS

place a gasoline service tank in the Bureau has caused the Bureau answered the bunny. Automobile Association to devise bers with gasoline.

BUREAU OF

Mrs. Nellie B. James, of the sur-Mrs. Randolph Wilson, formerly and cried:

Miss Belle Owens, of section 5, was presented with a set of flat silver by her co-workers.

"Oh, wow! Oh, double wow and away he ran howling through the woods.
"Dear me!" said Uncle Wiggily with Miss Clara Lowe and Miss Walmhe sick list.

Miss Annie Hussey, assistant chief f the examining division, is on three weeks' leave. Miss Ebba Hitt, of section 5, is spending two weeks at her home lown in Virginia. Miss Lillian Boyle, of the wetting division, night, has been granted a week's leave. Miss E. M. Worthington, of section 9, is still out nursing her in-jured hand.

tion 8, examining division, is on three weeks' leave.

Jimmie King, of section 5, has discarded his trusty Dodge and is now sporting a new Hupmobile.

Clifford Harwood, offset pressman n the surface division, is spending week at North Beach.

Miss Mary O'Connor, Miss Emma

TAMING MY HUSBAND By KATHLEEN FOX.

Syndicate.)

Syndicate.)

The Boyds, my father, Crittenden and I arrived together at Col. Hayes' home in Kentucky on June 14. The Langleys, married for a week, had gone East and were to join us for the house party.

The second day we were in Kentucky a telegram came. It was for Crittenden. It told of the death of Jack's uncle in Michigan.

"That means he will go there at

"That means he will go there at once," said Crittenden, as he informed us of the news. "Jack is his uncle's heir. And of course they won't be with us here."

Both Daddy and Mother Hayes were disappointed when they knew they would not have Jack and they would not have Jack and Betty in their party. "It spoils their trip," I remarked, and the others voiced their regrets and the others voiced their regrets and sympathy.

"Yes," said Crttenden, "it will interrupt it, certainly. But Jack won't lose anything. He will inherit a little chunk of money—about $50,000.

"I have no doubt that he will need it, all right," he added dryly.

"That little girl will fool you, my boy," said Daddy Hayes, "She's got plenty of sense in her pretty little head, if I know anything. And your mother is right—give the And your mother is right-give the little girl a chance first.'

"I haven't seen much of Betty in late years," said my father, look-ing up quietly at Crittenden. "But I tell you what I should be willing to do. I'd bet on her every time."
"So would I," said Chester Boyd and Mariorie.

"All right, all right," said Crit-tenden, throwing up his hands good naturedly. "But just watch and see. Jack Langley will come down kerplunk, and that girl will be the biggest part of the load that downs

(To be continued.)

CHILDREN'S SUNRISE STORIES

UNCLE WIGGILY AND THE NUTMEGS. By HOWARD R. GARIS

thinking how good the rice pudding tool shop, returned to work Monday would taste when Nurse Jane had after a vacation of two weeks. sprinkled nutmeg and sugar on top, the bunny rabbit all at once saw a little bag lying on the grass.

W. H. Whiting, of the coppersmith ness. He will be gone about a week shop, who was recently married, left or ten days.

(Copyright, 1919, The McOlure Newspaper Syndicate.)

bag. Uncle Wigglly found it full of hard glass marbles.

He put the bag of marbles in his pocket, together with the bag of round, brown nutmegs and once more Uncle Wggilly traveled on.

He had not gone very far before, all of a sudden, out from behind a big rock popped the bad old Skeezicks.

"Ah, ha! Oh, ho!" cried the Skeezicks. "This is my lucky day! I am hungry for souse. And what is that sweet, spicy smell I smell?"

"I guess you mean nutmers," sadly answered the bunny.

W. W. Keeler, president of Columbia Lodge, No. 174, International Association of Machinists, employed in the tool shop, left Tuesday for a short vacation.

Charles B. Smith, of the torpedo tube shop, with a party of friends, will motor to Baltimore, for Saturday and Sunday.

"I guess you mean nutmers," sadly and Sunday.

While picking blackberries on the Association to devise of supplying the memisoline.

Uncle Wiggly gave the bad chap a bag. Opening it and thrusting in his paw, the Skee pulled out some round. brown things.

"Oh, I just love nutmegs!" he cried, face division, is spending two weeks in New York City.

Sas he took a big bite. Then a queer look came over his face. He clapped one paw to his jaw, dropped the bag

"Oh, wow! Oh, double wow and Clara Lowe and Miss Walm-the wetting division, are on thist.

a queer twinkle of his pink nose as he picked up the bag the Skeezicks and dropped. "I must have given him the bag of hard marbles by mistake instead of the nutmegs."

Griffith and Miss Nettie Maugans, of the examining division, are on leave

E. F. Atkinson and S. F. McCulley of section 9, are on the sick list. Henry Batch, of section 3, has a house guest, his cousin, Miss Mari-Krouseman, of Chicago. He ester-tained at a dance in her honor Tuesured hand.

Mr. Peed, of the watch force, spent yesterday with his family at Chesapeake Beach.

Charlie Mason, of section 9, is ab-sent on account of the illness of his wife. Miss Minnie Biddle and Mrs. Sarah

Tanner, of the wetting division Harry Zoeffel, of section 9, night,

Sam Reeder, of section 8, is on absence due to injuries received in an automobile accident. well plastered up, he says he feels

Woodward & Lothrop

New York-WASHINGTON-Paris

All Crex and Deltox Grass Rugs Greatly Reduced

Strictly First Quality-Every Rug Perfect and Every Rug Reduced

This is a reduction that is even more important than it appears, because Grass Rugs are going much higher in price, and would cost more today at wholesale than we are offering them for at the present time.

Both Plain and Stenciled Rugs Are Included

Colors—plenty of the soft restful blues that are so much in demand; the cool-looking tan shades; also greens, browns and grays.

Abiding by our rule never to quote former prices in our announcements, except on Remnant Day, we do not note them here, but the savings range from $1.75 to about $4.00, according to the sizes.

$10.00 for 9x12-ft. Crex and Deltox Rugs. $9.95 for 8x10-ft. Crex and Deltox Rugs. $7.50 for 6x9-ft. Crex and Deltox Rugs. $5.00 for 4.6x7.6-ft. Crex and Deltox Rugs.

Navy Yard News

Riding along in his automobile, and Quarterman R. W. Barker, of the of the coppersmith shop, left the "Can I have dropped Nurse Jane's on Tuesday with his bride for a fif-nutmegs without knowing it?" ne teen-day stay at Atlantic City.

asked himse!', puzzled like.

Mr. Longears felt in his pocket.

The bag of nutmegs was there all won the prize pig given by the Morieht. Charles Webber, of the sight shop. mount shop, spent last Sunday at won the prize pig given by the Mohawk Athletic Club.

"Some one else must have dropped theirs," thought the bunny rabbit.
"I'll pick this bag up."
This he did, but, to his surprise, instead of finding nutmegs in the little bag. Uncle Wiggliy found it full of hard glass marbles.

hawk Athletic Ciub.

Al Schulz, of the tool shop. who is quite a fishing fan, had his first trip with his new reel last week, catching five perch from the Tidal Basin. persmith shop, left for Pittson, Pa., last Priday to spend a week of her vacation among acquaintances.

While picking blackberries on the Virginia shore Saturday, John Nal-ley, of the broadside mount shop, was attacked by a bull dog. The

Summer Hats

of Rare Charm

—So reasonably priced that you will want to buy several of $5.50, $7.50, $10.00

N. BACHRACH & CO.

915 G Street N. W.

ORIGINAL AND ARTISTIC

Furniture

Designed in Our Factory to Meet Individual Needs.

Tuohey Bros.

1328 G STREET N. W.

Golden & Co.

dog got away with part of Nalley's

Joe Carroll, formerly of the tool

shop, left the government service

Samuel Shreve, master mechanic

Henry Walls, of the broadside

Bob Roberts has returned to the ool shop from his recent fishing rip to Harper's Ferry. Miss Lillian Kearney, of the cop-

Silk Lingerie and Skirts

S. SUZUKI & CO. 614 14th St. N. W.

Between F and G Sts. Main 7514

to the suggestion that you use

-Stick to ELK GROVE, the Butter that's always Best.

stitute for ELK GROVE BUTTER.

AT ALL GROCERS

922-928 La. Ave.

At Atlantic City, which af-

At many of them, indeed, including the Marlborough Blenheim and the new Traymore, Fatima is steadily the leader.

-and at Atlantic City fords a typical cross-section of American society, Fatima is one of the three best sellers in nearly every hotel on the famous boardwalk.